What is New in FRACPRO CONNECT 2023 (Version 10.13.3.0)?

FRACPRO CONNECT® 2023, the latest version of the industry-leading hydraulic fracturing data acquisition and real time monitoring software from StrataGen, is now available! This version incorporates numerous advanced capabilities that solve field challenges faced by our broad customer base. It also enhances existing workflows to optimize job efficiency.

New Features and Enhancements

- Improved real-time behavior for Common Database and Ball-Drop Sleeve jobs.

- Added well name to program caption bar for multi-well jobs.

- Added ability to setup Customized Plot Titles templates.

- Added ability to select report template for Custom Reports.

- Added option to add a comment automatically when auto-staging.

- Added "No Time Zone WITSML" option.

- Added Sweep option to the list of Stage Types in Treatment Schedule.

- Display perf intervals for current stage only on Schematic Views.

- Improved the speed of displaying Additive channels.

- Fixed integration function in user-defined channels.

- Fixed random time column jumps in real-time CSV-files.

- Fixed INP-file generation from text file.

- Fixed incorrect uploading to FRACPRO AI when pumping down annulus.

- Fixed incorrect proppant totals in the report.

- Added several stage summary tags to WITSML output.

- Added number of pumps at the start and at the end of service to Post Job Data screen.